¶ In stead of the First Collect at Morning Prayer, shall be used this which followeth.

Most gracious God, we bless and magnifie Thy Name for the Glorious Successes, which Thou hast vouchsafed this Year to Her Majesty and her Allies against the Common Enemy, far above what we could have presumed to expect or hope for. To Thee alone we owe all our Victories, who hast made our Enemies to fly before us, when our great and manifold Sins might justly have provoked Thee to deliver us into their Hands. We beseech Thee to fill our Hearts with such a deep sense of Thy wonderful and repeated Mercies, as may work in us a cheerful Obedience to all Thy Laws, and a constant and uniform Zeal for Thy Glory. Be Thou pleased still to dwell among us, and to watch over us for Good. Continue the Protection of Thy good Providence to our most gracious Queen; and as thou hast hitherto bless'd her Reign in a most wonderful manner, so do Thou still direct and prosper all her Counsels and Designs for the Safety and Happiness of Thy Church and People. of Her Enemies : and give to Her Arms, and those of Her Allies, such farther Success, as may in Thy appointed time procure us a lasting and happy Peace ; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ In the end of the Litany ( which shall be used upon this Day ) after the Collect [We humbly beseech thee, O Father, &c.] shall be said this following Prayer.

O Lord God of our Salvation, who hast girded us with Strength unto the Battle, and put them to Confusion that hate us ; We humbly Adore Thee for the great Successes Thou hast hitherto been pleas'd to give to the Arms of Her Majesty and Her Allies. We confess, O Lord, that it was not our own Arm that gat us the Victory, but Thine Hand and Thine Arm, because Thou hadst a Favour unto us. We beseech Thee still to Continue Thy Loving-kindness towards us, and to scatter our Enemies that delight in War. Plead Thou our Cause with them that strive with us, and fight Thou against them that fight against us. And give us grace so duly to consider these Thy Mercies towards us, that we may in every thing behave our selves as becomes a People whom the Lord hath redeem'd ; and that, being deliver'd from our Enemies, and from the Hands of them that hate us, we may serve Thee without fear, in holiness and righteousness before Thee all the Days of our Life, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then shall follow the Prayer in time of War and Tumults.

¶ Then the Prayer for the High Court of Parliament.

¶ Then the General Thanksgiving.

¶ Then a Prayer of St. Chrysostom.

¶ Then The Grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, &c.

¶ At the end of the Commandments, after the Collect for the Queen, [Almighty God, whose Kingdom is everlasting, &c.] shall this Collect be used in stead of the Collect for the Day.

O Most mighty Lord God, who hast been pleas'd to make the Reign of our most gracious Queen exceedingly happy and Glorious, and to bless her Arms, and those of her Allies, with many astonishing Successes both by Sea and Land; We beseech Thee still to Continue to her and Them Thy Protection and Assistance in the Just War in which they are engaged. Do Thou, who art our only Hope and Strength, still go forth with their Fleets and Armies. Let the Work of Thee our God, who executeest righteousness and judgment for them that are oppressed with wrong, still prosper in their hands; And, of thy gracious Goodness, grant them such farther Success, as may effectually disappoint the boundless Ambition of the Common Enemy and Oppressor, and be the means of Restoring Peace, Safety and Prosperity to her Majesty and her Kingdoms, and the Nations and States in Alliance with her. Grant this, O Lord, for the sake of thy dear Son Jesus Christ, our only Mediator and Advocate. Amen.

A Form of Prayer

For the Epistle. Deut. XX. ver. 1.

When thou goest out to battle against thine enemies, and seest horses, and chariots, and a people more than thou, be not afraid of them: for the Lord thy God is with thee, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt. And it shall be when ye are come nigh unto the battle, that the priest shall approach, and speak unto the people, and shall say unto them, Hear, O Israel, you approach this day unto battle against your enemies: let not your hearts faint, fear not and do not tremble, neither be ye terrified because of them. For the Lord your God is he that goeth with you, to fight for you against your enemies, to save you.

The Gospel. S. Luke XI. ver. 21.

When a strong man armed keepeth his palace, his goods are in peace. But when a stronger than he shall come upon him, and overcome him, he taketh from him all his armour wherein he trusted, and divideth his spoils. He that is not with me, is against me: and he that gathereth not with me, scattereth.

¶ Then shall follow the Nicene Creed; after that, the Sermon.

¶ In the Offertory shall this Sentence be read.

Whatsoever ye would that men should do unto you, even so do unto them, for this is the law and the prophets.

¶ After the Prayer [For the whole State of Christs Church,] shall be used these Prayers following.

¶ A Prayer

and Thanksgiving.

¶ A Prayer for all Mankind, especially for the Reformed Churches.

O God, the Creator and Governour of the World, whose Mercies are over all thy Works : We beseech thee to extend thy compassion and favour to all Mankind ; more especially to the Reformed Churches abroad, giving them all Blessings convenient for them. And we humbly beseech thee to enlighten all those who are in Darkness and Error, and to give them Repentance to the acknowledgment of the Truth, that we may all become one Flock, under the great Shepherd and Bishop of our Souls, Jesus Christ our Blessed Saviour and Redeemer : To whom, with thee, O Father, and the Holy Spirit, be all Honour and Glory for evermore. Amen.

Grant, O Lord, we beseech thee, that the course of this World may be so peaceably ordered by thy Governance, that thy Church may joyfully serve thee in all godly quietness, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Grant, we beseech thee, Almighty God, that the words which we have heard this day with our outward ears, may through thy grace be so grafted inwardly in our hearts, that they may bring forth in us the fruit of good living, to the honour and praise of thy Name, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Almighty God, the fountain of all wisdom, who knowest our necessities before we ask, and our ignorance in asking ; We beseech thee to have compassion upon our infirmities ; and those things which for our unworthiness we dare not, and for our blindness we cannot ask, vouchsafe to give us for the worthiness of thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Form of Prayer, &c.

¶ Then the Priest (or Bishop, if he be present) shall let them depart with this Blessing.

The peace of God which passeth all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord: and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be amongst you, and remain with you always. Amen.
